

Tucker MacIntyre

N4_multInv

A simple test to determine whether a particular element of  $\mathbb{Z}_m$  is/ has a multiplicative inverse, is to simply determine the greatest common factor between that particular element and the value  $m$ . If the greatest common factor is equal to the value 1, then this should be a multiplicative inverse.